I attend many reunions each year – a number of different “year” reunions at School, where groups of SCEGGS girls from a particular year get together for lunch, dinner or cocktails. I also attend many regional reunions in different parts of NSW and the country. A few weeks ago I was in Perth and met up with some Old Girls from that state. My husband Terry has attended almost as many reunions as I have. At Perth, he was useful in spotting SCEGGS girls, who were arriving and not quite sure of where to find us. Terry says that he can spot a SCEGGS Old Girl at 50 metres! I will shortly go to Bowral for another function and many more later this year. Wherever they are held, they are always such fun!

I think they are important too, because the strength of the School can be seen in the sense of community and identity it instils in our young people. And that sense of community continues after you leave SCEGGS. I want Old Girls to feel as much as part of the School as the current girls do. I want Old Girls to love and cherish the School, knowing that we care about each and every one of them too. I want us to live out the saying: “Once a SCEGGS girl, always a SCEGGS girl!” So you are always very welcome to visit – whether for a scheduled reunion or just to call in and say Hello; tell us what you are doing, and see what we are up to. We want you to be involved, and we would certainly want to help wherever we could.

One of the great initiatives of the school at the moment is the establishment of the Scholarship fund. We do value the diversity and egalitarian nature of the SCEGGS community and we want to provide access to the school for the widest possible number of students. The School would like to help create greater opportunities for girls from the widest possible catchment of socio-economic and cultural backgrounds to come to SCEGGS. We hope to do this by broadening and developing our scholarship and access programmes. And so we are very grateful that the Old Girls’ Union has supported us so strongly in this regard. They have been very generous – both in their moral support for this cause, and also financially through significant monetary contributions. We thank the Union very much. Many of you will know that we have started construction of the new Joan Freeman Science, Art and Technology Centre. It is a very exciting time for us. We have done the first round of excavation, so the noisy work of jack hammers and rock saws is finished for the time being. We are now seeing the building starting to “come out of the ground”, with concrete pours and steel construction work just starting. The first tower of the new building should be completed for the start of the 2011 school year.

It is certainly going to be a wonderful facility and the size of the work is very significant. You can get wonderful views of the site and can gauge the size of the building from St Peter’s Street, but for those of you who don’t live close to the school, there are regular updates and photos on the school’s website. There is also a virtual tour of what the building will look like when it is finished. It is amazing! You can see all of that in the Trust section of our website.

Also on the website is our Annual Report for 2009. There are just so many achievements and activities going on in the school. The Annual Report runs to 50 pages! I am so proud of our girls, the opportunities to which they have access and all they are able to achieve. Take a look!

I know we were all saddened to hear of the untimely death of Lenore Preshaw (CLYDE-SMITH) from the Class of 1965 and President of the Old Girls’ Union. Lenore was a person of such vibrancy and joy in life. She just exemplified life and love and laughter and good fun. She will be sorely missed in the Executive of the Old Girls’ Union. We think of all her family and friends, who miss her so much.

Finally, I did want to thank the Old Girls’ Union for making me an Honorary Old Girl at Back to SCEGGS Day last year. What a thrill! And I hadn’t known that it was going to happen – so it was a complete surprise and a wonderful delight. I was truly honoured to receive my Old Girls’ badge and I do wear it with great pride.

I hope to see many of you at this year’s Back to SCEGGS day on the evening of July 23rd of which there are details in this magazine. It should be a great evening! Best wishes to you all. Luceat Lux Vestra.

SCEGGS OLD GIRLS’ UNION NEWS
The Centenary Dinner and
Antonia Black Art Show in 2009 was a wonderful success with more than 300 Old Girls attending. Many of the Old Girls, accompanied by School Prefects, enjoyed the twilight tour around the school and the music of the jazz band which performed in the forecourt of the Playhouse before gathering in the Great Hall for a superb dinner.

Like most centenarians we are proud of our years and our achievements and while the past year has not quite had the hype of celebrations of our Centenary Year in 2009, nonetheless it has been another very good year.

At the 2009 AGM, a resolution was passed to permit Old Girls from related SCEGGS branch schools (excluding those who attended SCEGGS Redlands after 1976) to join the SCEGGS Darlinghurst OGU. During the year we have welcomed Old Girls from the SCEGGS branch schools of Moss Vale and Wollongong (Gleniffer Brae) and Redlands. One of our ‘new’ Old Girls, Marcia Cameron, will be launching her book on the history of SCEGGS Wollongong on Sunday July 18. This follows on from her earlier work ‘SCEGGS A Centenary History of Sydney Church of England Girls’ Grammar School’, published in 1994.

The Office Bearers for 2009/2010 elected at the August meeting of the OGU Committee are listed below:

- President
  Lenore Preshaw (CLYDE-SMITH 1965)

- Vice Presidents
  Judy Caldwell (ROGAN 1962)
  Kaye Morrison (MAHLER 1964)
  Joanne WHITEMAN (1979)

- Treasurer
  Jessica SINGER (1984)

- Secretary
  Joy Bull (ELLIS 1965)

- Public Officer
  Marilyn Cook (BROWN 1965)

Elizabeth BUTCHER AM (1955) was again nominated and supported in her appointment as Old Girls’ Union representative on the SCEGGS Board.

Joy England, Director of Development, was invited to speak at the August meeting. Joy brought the OGU Committee up to date with the Joan Freeman Capital Campaign, the increase in Trustees of the Joan Freeman Science Art & Technology Centre and the Barham Fellows Bequest Programme. There are now over 50 Barham Fellows acknowledged on the Honour Board in Barham. Joy also advised the Committee how to access information from the SCEGGS webpage.

The Old Girls’ Union Committee meets each term to plan activities, to support the school and encourage relations between Old Girls and the school. In particular, the Committee supports the SCEGGS Scholarship Fund which provides opportunities for a SCEGGS education to girls who would otherwise not be able to attend SCEGGS. In addition to meeting four times per year, Old Girls participate in various school events such as helping at Ascension Day and the SCEGGS Fair, contributing to prizes awarded at Speech Night and participating in SPAN events. Old Girls have also been involved as speakers at Oral History Days and Father/Daughter breakfasts and as representatives at the National Council of Women of NSW.

August 30, 2009 was a beautiful sunny day for the SCEGGS Fair. Continuing a long tradition, Old Girls, with support from some husbands, worked on the Devonshire Tea stall and the memorabilia stall. Joy Bull always does an excellent job gathering memorabilia items for sale at school functions. The weather and enthusiasm of the workers contributed to the success of the day.

At the end of the year OGU Badges were handed out by the President, Lenore Preshaw, to the year 12 girls at their final assembly. The first official event in 2010 for the new Old Girls was the year 13 cocktail party hosted by the OGU. It was a very successful evening with about 80 girls attending. Ascension Day is always a special occasion for Old Girls who left school 50 years or more. On Thursday May 13, Old Girls gathered for a chapel service followed by luncheon in the SCEGGS Great Hall. Success may be measured by the noise level of laughter and conversation as stories are told (and retold) and friendships renewed.

Year Reunions and District Reunions continue to be joyful occasions for celebration and remembering.

In the latter part of 2009, Reunions were celebrated by the Class of 1959 (50 years) ’69 (40 years) ’79 (30 years) ’89 (20 years) and ’99 (10 years). Reunions have been planned in 2010 for the classes of 1960, ’70, ’80, ’90 and 2000.

District Reunions have included the Districts of Melbourne, Brisbane, Southern Districts, Newcastle and Districts Perth, Bowral & Orange.

At the end of each year, the OGU Committee takes pleasure in hosting an informal gathering with members of the School Board and Senior Staff, prior to attending the Festival of Lessons and Carols in the SCEGGS Great Hall. It offers an opportunity to celebrate the Advent Season together and to give thanks to God for another great SCEGGS year.

The OGU Committee wishes to thank our Head of School, Jenny Allum, for her regular attendance at OGU meetings, her regular reports, and her enthusiastic support and encouragement. The Old Girls are delighted that Jenny accepted the invitation to become an Honorary Old Girl. She was presented with an Old Girls’ badge at the Centenary Dinner. Thanks also to so many who support and encourage SCEGGS Old Girls, including Rosemary Humphreys (1973, School Co-ordinator) Carrol Evans (Registrar), Joy England (Director of Development), Prue Heath (Archivist) Kristy Ahearn (Accountant), and Sue Pynenburg (Business Manager). Also thanks to Marilyn Cook who works so effectively and efficiently in her role as Alumni Relations Coordinator and thanks, of course, to the OGU Committee who give of their time and skills to contribute to a cohesive committee that effectively and joyfully support the goals of the SCEGGS OGU.

All Old Girls and partners are invited to come to functions planned for later in the year; first, at Orange on Sunday August 15, 2010 at the home of Ellen and Charlie Fisher (YOUNG 1965) and on Sunday October 17, 2010, a Champagne High Tea at Randwick at the home of Robin Bolin (CRIPPS 1951).

It is a great privilege and joy to be a SCEGGS Old Girl and we look forward to future events at the School and at other venues where Old Girls may continue to enjoy those special relations we treasure with the SCEGGS community.

THE OLD GIRLS’ UNION SCHOLARSHIP

The Old Girls’ Union Scholarship is awarded to a girl whose mother or grandmother attended SCEGGS Darlinghurst. The Scholarship covers the final two years of secondary schooling and is awarded to a girl who can contribute positively to the school.

The Scholarship, which covers full tuition fees, is intended to assist a student whose family is facing financial hardship in the payment of fees. The Old Girls’ Union Scholar will be expected to make a significant contribution to the School in one or more areas.

The Selection Committee will take into account:
• Education background and performance
• Involvement in co-curricular activities
• Personal qualities and character
• Commitment to the life of SCEGGS
• Financial circumstances of the family

Applications and more information for 2012 can be obtained by telephoning our registrar, Ms Carrol Evans, on (02) 9332 1133. Applications will close by the end of March 2011.
SCEGGS Old Girls never fail to rise to a challenge and the support which they have given SCEGGS since the School was founded has been unwavering.

Joy England
DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT

From supporting the Cot Fund since 1923 to running the traditional Devonshire Teas at the biennial Festival on Forbes, Old Girls remain an active part of the School today.

Many Old Girls have honoured the School by choosing to become a Barham Fellow. Named in honour of Barham, the first building to house SCEGGS, Barham Fellows are those who have chosen to leave a legacy to the school through their will.

Joan FREEMAN (1935), Mary STEPHENS (1935), Gay RUSSELL (1940) and Diana BOWMAN (1954), Head of SCEGGS 1978-95, to name a few, all expressed their love of SCEGGS through a legacy in their will. Many others have also become Barham Fellows and their names are on the Honour Board in Barham in recognition of their generosity. It is the generous contributions of our Barham Fellows which continues to help SCEGGS to remain an outstanding School with many opportunities for the girls.

One of our most recent Barham Fellows is Donna Driver (JACKSON 1968) who is the President of the OGU in Canberra, where she took over from Helen Campbell (MAY 1949) another Barham Fellow. Donna wrote a letter to SCEGGS which she very kindly has allowed us to reproduce here. Her words eloquently express her love for SCEGGS and her pleasure in continuing strong links with SCEGGS.

Barham Fellows are recognised by SCEGGS today for what they are intending to do in the future. That way, we can share with our Barham Fellows some of the life of SCEGGS as it currently is. All Barham Fellows are invited to a Morning Tea with Ms Allum, the Head of School as well as receiving a gold Barham Fellow brooch. This is to recognise the spirit of generosity of our Barham Fellows and for SCEGGS to be able to thank them for their contribution.

Making a bequest is a very important and sensitive decision which needs thought and reflection. You may have many questions which you would like answered and we have tried to answer some of them below.

If you would like to know more about becoming a Barham Fellow, please do not hesitate to contact Joy England, Director of Development, for a confidential discussion on 02 9339 9428 or email JoyEngland@sceggs.nsw.edu.au.

Barham Fellow Honour Board
FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ABOUT BECOMING A BARHAM FELLOW

Q. Do I have to bequeath a certain amount in my will to become a Barham Fellow?
A. Not at all, it is entirely up to the individual – every single gift is valuable and acknowledged in the spirit in which it is given. All gifts are used to assist SCEGGS in different ways. For example, Joan Freeman’s bequest has been directed towards the construction of the new Science, Art and Technology Centre.

Q. Do I have to leave money or can I leave assets?
A. You can leave a specific amount of money or a percentage of your estate. Similarly, you can leave property, artworks, shares or insurance policies. Consult your legal advisor on what is most appropriate for you and your family.

Q. Do I have to tell SCEGGS what I am leaving?
A. No, but it is always helpful for the Board to know as it assists in the future planning of the School. However, privacy is always respected.

Q. Does my name have to appear on the Honour Board?
A. It is entirely up to you, you can remain anonymous should you prefer.

Q. Do I have to be an Old Girl to leave a Bequest?
A. Not at all, we are delighted that any members of the SCEGGS Community may choose to leave a bequest. Please call to discuss this if you would like further information.

Q. I am interested in finding out more information, what do I do next?
A. Please call 02 9339 9428 or email JoyEngland@sceggs.nsw.edu.au anytime for a confidential discussion.

Dear Jenny and Joy

It is with pleasure I would like to present a cheque to you for $5,000 (five thousand dollars) as a gift from me to The SCEGGS Scholarship Fund as a celebration of my days at the school and also to celebrate my 60th birthday.

SCEGGS has always been very dear to my heart. I have benefited so greatly throughout my life by being educated there.

My days at SCEGGS gave me the foundation to go forward with my life once I left the school, equipping me with confidence, a sound education, truth and conviction. The path was not always clear or easy, nor the direction obvious but SCEGGS instilled in me the power to think, evaluate and make choices with an open minded thought process.

I would like to become a Barham Fellow. I have left instructions in my Will to bequeath to SCEGGS a fixed amount of money upon my death. I have advised my family of my wishes and the amount of money I wish to leave to the school.

I leave with you the words from ‘Desiderata’ which I feel are words full of wisdom. My three daughters had this poem read at their weddings and although it is dated 1927, I believe its words are so poignant today.

These words I believe are unspoken in the philosophy of SCEGGS.

We as Old Girls are scattered throughout the world pursuing so many different paths, and yet are still united as SCEGGS Old Girls.

‘Luceat Lux Vestra’
‘Let your light shine’

That is what I have tried to do throughout my life.

SCEGGS showed me the way and ‘lit the light’ to go forward.

A group of Old Girls gathered together for a delightful luncheon in September 2009.

The spring day in Canberra was beautiful and it was a great opportunity to catch up with old friends and welcome new ones.

We welcomed Marilyn Cook and Joy England from SCEGGS. We were all eager to hear what was happening at the School. We as Old Girls marvel at the amazing opportunities the girls have today and yet the underlying ethos of SCEGGS. remains ever constant.

We presented a donation to the ongoing success of SCEGGS.

Helen Campbell decided to step down from being President at the luncheon and Donna Driver became President.

We cannot thank Helen enough for her wonderful leadership and devotion to SCEGGS. She has been and remains an inspiration to all. We are delighted that Helen has decided to remain on the committee.

Everyone agreed we should gather again before the next luncheon. So on Sunday 7th March, 2010 a group of eager Old Girls, their partners and friends drove into the nearby countryside to have a delicious leisurely lunch at ‘Poacher’s Pantry’, a renovated farmhouse restaurant.

The venue and setting were so relaxing and new and old friendships were quickly forged.

Shrieks of laughter and giggles wafted across the lawns as Old Girls reminisced well after the luncheon concluded over yet another coffee or hot chocolate, huddled under umbrellas as light autumn rain fell.

We look forward to our annual luncheon again on 24th September 2010. It is a beautiful time of the year in Canberra and the city has a great many exhibitions such as Floriade to offer.

We would be delighted to welcome you to our luncheon as well.

Donna Driver (JACKSON 1968)
A very successful and happy luncheon was held on Tuesday 2nd March at Customs House Hotel in Newcastle.

Our luncheon each year is a wonderful way for Old Girls in our area to catch up with friends and to meet new friends in this region.

Customs House Hotel, where we hold our luncheon, is a very convenient location with on-site parking, and it is across the road from the Newcastle train station.

We were delighted to welcome Marilyn Cook and Joy England who were able to tell us the latest news of SCEGGS.

Old Girls travelled from...
Barrington, Salamander Bay, Windella Downs, Newcastle, Pretty Beach, Avoca, Gosford, Sydney and Arcadia Vale, Bonnells Bay, Fishing Point and Wangi Wangi on Lake Macquarie to be with us.

Welcome also to those girls who have not attended before – Shirley Shaw from Newcastle, Barbara Livingstone, Janyce Knight from Barrington, and Abigail Lewis from Highfields, Newcastle.

If you have recently moved to live in our area, do let Marilyn Cook know your new address, so that you can receive an invitation to our next luncheon at Customs House Hotel on Tuesday March 1st 2011.

I will be travelling on the Newcastle train to the Back to School Day on Friday 23rd July this year, so do give me a ring on 02 4973 1942 if you would like to join me. ♥ Meg Scott (MYERS 1957)

QUEENSLAND
BRANCH REPORT

On 18th July 2009, 16 Old Girls enjoyed a delicious lunch at Tattersall’s Club. We were pleased Marilyn Cook was able to join us on the day. Marilyn informed us of the latest happenings at Darlinghurst.
It was decided at the meeting to donate $1000.00 to the SCEGGS Scholarship Fund on behalf of the SCEGGS Old Girls (Queensland Branch).

Our next meeting and luncheon will be held on Saturday 31st July 2010, commencing at 11.30am at Tattersall’s club. For more information please contact:

MELBOURNE BRANCH REPORT 2009

The two functions that were held during the year were very well attended and it was particularly pleasing to welcome quite a few of our younger Old Girls.

Our Foundation Day luncheon was held on Saturday 11th July at the RACV Club in the city – we had a separate function room which gave us the privacy to really enjoy ourselves – Marilyn Cook, our well-loved Alumni Relations Co-ordinator from the School in Sydney, joined us and we were pleased to meet and welcome Joy England on her first visit to Melbourne in her capacity as the Director of Development.

The Club has a lovely grand piano and yes, we did sing the school songs, accompanied by Janet Bell, much to the amusement of everyone present in the Club at that time. This function was arranged by Wendy and Max Aitken, and they deserve our warmest thanks, everything was beautifully arranged for us.

In the second half of the year, we were saddened to learn of the death of June Kiernan (MCLEOD 1944). June was one of the early founding members of this Branch and served many years as Secretary. A large group of those who had known June attended her funeral service in Kew. Those of us who knew June will always remember her warm, welcoming smile.

We finished the year with a delightful Christmas Drinks Cocktail Party at the home of Roz and Rob Milne, “hosts par excellence”, on the 12th December, it was lovely to have Marilyn and her husband Constantine join us and again, the presence of some of our younger girls was very welcome.

This year, our Foundation Day luncheon will again be held at the RACV Club in the City on Saturday 17th July – invitations will be sent from the Sydney School in due course to all Old Girls whose addresses are known to the School. We encourage you all to come, you will be assured of a warm welcome and very pleasant company.

THE OLD GIRLS’ REUNION IN THE WEST
11TH APRIL 2010

It is not often that the few Old Girls living in Western Australia have the chance to come together, and it is with thanks to Marilyn that those of us who were able to met in April this year.

The chosen venue was the Atrium Garden Restaurant at the Esplanade Hotel in Fremantle. We were greeted in the foyer by Jenny Allum and her husband, Terry who were joined later by Marilyn Cook and her husband Constantine. Their presence helped to make the day the memorable occasion that it was.

Some of the girls knew one another beforehand, most of whom had been boarders. However, this was not a problem as Marilyn had seen to it that we all had printed name tags and, what is more, she presented us all with “show bags”, containing SCEGGS publications to keep us up to date with the current progress of the School, car stickers and a linen tea towel printed with the School badge and all the House badges. This was a great reminder of our School days and a much appreciated keepsake.

At lunch everyone sat at the one long table. There were sixteen in total, ten old girls, two husbands and our four visitors from the East. The Old Girls present were Rosemary Rich (HARGRAVE), Fiona Millett (PATTERSON) and her husband ALEC, Phillipa Thorn (YOUNG), Robyn Jenkins (BAILEY), Jackie Patoir (TOOTH) and her husband Elifaz, Susan Hendricks (GILL), Lynne Hughes (WILLIAMS), Annette Castley (GILL), Mary Lilburn (BRIGHTWELL) and Suzanne Welborn (SIMPSON). Even though only a handful of us knew each other beforehand the conversation was soon flowing freely. As the meal progressed girls shared old school memories and their life experiences in the West. Jenny and Marilyn and their husbands moved freely amongst us getting to know us and making us still feel a part of SCEGGS.

The Fremantle/Perth reunion lunch, apart from the excellent smorgasbord cuisine we enjoyed, was a chance for us here in the remote Western third of the country to feel reconnected with our past. Most of us came here with husbands for work reasons, leaving our families of origin and old friends behind. It was a nostalgic time for us and judging from the enthusiastic exchange of phone numbers it could even
The 10 year reunion was held at The Lord Dudley, Paddington in September 2009. More than half the year came to the event, to catch up with old friends and mingle with others they had not seen for a while. Everyone had a laugh out of seeing the slide show, put together of old archived photos – of past sports days and house drama pics taken through the years... Casey MAYO (1999)

be the catalyst for more frequent locally arranged get-togethers. All in all it was a very memorable and successful day. Thanks again to Marilyn for bringing us together and to Jenny for making the long trip to join us. Thanks, too, to Terry (Jenny’s husband) and Constantine (Marilyn’s husband) for keeping the party lively. ♥ Annette Castley (GILL 1958)
The day started with a Chapel Service led by our School Chaplain Garry Lee-Lindsay. A very special and moving part of the Service was the prayer by Judy Caldwell (ROGAN 1962) in memory of Lenore Preshaw (CLYDE-SMITH) who sadly passed away in March.

After Chapel we walked down the hill to the SCEGGS Great Hall, which looked truly beautiful with the sun pouring through the stained glass windows.

Everyone was delighted to see the “walkthrough” DVD of the Joan Freeman Science Arts and Technology Centre. It looked so real!

There was much laughter watching the DVD of the 100 Years of the Old Girls’ Union, it brought back many memories.

Amelia KELLOW (Yr 12, daughter of Kirsty CAMPBELL 1984) spoke eloquently about being the recipient of the Old Girls’ Union Scholarship and how much it meant to her.

All who attended thoroughly enjoyed the day and are looking forward to next year’s Ascension Day lunch.
The SCEGGS Old Girls' Union

Committee is deeply appreciative of the many contributions Lenore has made over the years to the whole SCEGGS community through both her time as a student at SCEGGS and as an Old Girl of the School. Her love, laughter and compassion were expressed throughout her life.

Lenore attended SCEGGS from 1955 until 1965. Her school friends tell delightful stories of such fun times together as they remember fondly her sparkling personality, her great sense of fun and laughter, her love of parties and dressing up, of times running up and down the stairs, praying and singing in the Chapel and the vibrancy she brought to everyday school life. It was not surprising that in her final year she was elected as a prefect and Captain of Badham House. She fulfilled both these responsibilities with enthusiasm and commitment.

Lenore had the capacity to build strong and affectionate personal relationships through her love of life and these continued into her commitment in the SCEGGS community. After many years as a member on the SCEGGS OGU Committee and an extended term as Treasurer, Lenore accepted the role as President in 2009. Lenore always devoted herself to the task at hand, whether it was in her role as Treasurer, President or simply working at any of the SCEGGS functions in which she participated so enthusiastically, so often with Ken helping alongside.

Lenore’s friendship, fun and laughter and generous hospitality will be remembered in various ways, not the least by those who attended a special SCEGGS function at her, and Ken’s, lovely property at Yarramalong in 2003. The outcome of good organisation and a lot of hard work by Lenore and Ken produced a welcoming venue for a very successful day. Lenore continued working to ensure that SCEGGS OGU remained actively engaged in supporting the school, particularly through the SCEGGS Scholarship Fund which was kick started in 2009 with a donation from the SCEGGS Old Girls’ Union. Lenore’s generosity of time, attention, encouragement and energetic support of many kinds has been so important to the Committee over many years that it is hard to imagine what we will do without her. Nonetheless, she has inspired us to continue the task which she so generously and vibrantly modelled.

Once a nurse always a nurse; Lenore was always ready to help and give generously of herself and her time. She was always quick to be at hand in emergencies and offer ongoing supportive care. No matter how busy her own life may have been, she always had time for others.

On March 30, 2010 the SCEGGS Community gathered in SCEGGS’ Great Hall with Lenore’s family and friends as our Chaplain Rev. Garry Lee-Lindsay conducted a service to thank God for Lenore’s life and celebrate the rich and full life of a wonderful friend.

Lenore is so sadly missed. She was a beautiful person, full of happiness and joy, an active and enthusiastic organiser, a kind and generous person who approached her diverse roles with love and compassion and enthusiastic commitment.

Lenore has given us a gift of immense value that will be treasured.

She gave all of her self and we have been greatly blessed.

This year our ANZAC service was particularly special and quite moving as we had Lieutenant Commander Guselli from the Australian Navy address us as part of the service. LCDR Guselli is an Old Girl of SCEGGS from the Class of 1996, who attended ADFA (the Australian Defence Force Academy) after school. In her address she spoke of the Navy’s participation in the Gallipoli campaign, as well as an inspirational Australian woman, Nancy Wake, who risked her life during the Second World War as a resistance fighter in France. Finally, LCDR Guselli told stories of recent Navy peace-keeping missions in the Gulf, including some of her own experiences. She demonstrated that the ANZAC spirit is still alive and the ANZAC Day Service was even more meaningful with a SCEGGS girl as our special guest.

After the service Ms Allum hosted a morning tea for LCDR Guselli. Three of our senior Air Force Cadets were invited to attend this morning tea – Grace Hicks, Natalia Mitreska and myself. This was a terrific opportunity to chat to her and discover more of her experiences, including her time training at ADFA. We really enjoyed meeting with LCDR Guselli and hearing her stories. We are most appreciative that LCDR Guselli took time out of her busy life to come and share in our ANZAC Day commemorations.

Prue Heath
Archivist

As can be seen in the photographs, over the last 84 years much of the timber had either lost its original protective layer of polish or had darkened and dried. As well, the parquetry floor needed polishing and some of the pew seats had cracked.

After the painstaking removal of old polish and dirt, the conservators reapplied French polish and wax. The pews were glued and supported where necessary and the parquetry floor was repolished.

As one Old Girl and current member of staff said, ‘Over the last few years the Chapel has seemed darker. Now that the work is done, the Chapel again has the beautiful honey colour and lightness that I remember so well from my school days.’ This was particularly gratifying as it neatly encapsulated the aim of the work.

During the year we hope to install more sensitive lighting. This should enhance use of the Chapel in the afternoons and evenings for functions such as weddings and christenings.

Some key events in the life of the Chapel:

1910  First request to Council from Miss Badham for a Chapel to be built at the school.

1919  “From the time I first came to this School – nearly twenty-five years ago – on its opening, my hope and dream was that we should have a Chapel of our own. Time after time the dream has been laid aside, but I am encouraged to hope that it may be realised.’ (from Miss Badham’s last Report, December, 1919.)

1920  Following Miss Badham’s death in 1920, a Committee of the Old Girls’ Union announces that it would raise funds for a Memorial Chapel. However, due to space constraints this plan is not initially viable.

1923  The School Council adopted a proposal of Miss Wilkinson’s that a Gymnasium replace the School Hospital providing a new assembly hall space.

July 1925  The Old Girls’ Union petition the School Council for permission to convert the Main Hall to a Chapel.

August 1925  Approval given, provided the Old Girls’ Union took full financial responsibility. Plans drawn up by architect John Burcham Clamp. Clamp was surveyor to the Sydney Diocesan, designed Shore Chapel and was sometime partner of Walter Burley Griffin.

October 1925
Plans approved, £684 raised and the refurbishment proceeded.

1926 The Chapel was dedicated by the Archbishop on 9th April 1926, with the first Holy Communion held on Ascension Day, 13th May 1926. The Archbishop in his Address at the Dedication Service prayed that those belonging to the School, by their constant use of the Chapel, would fulfil Miss Badham’s hopes and make the Chapel the real centre of the School’s life and activity. Over the next ten years many gifts are given towards the furnishing of the chapel including:
- The carved lectern and holy table from the Old Girls
- Hymn boards from Miss Shaw
- Oak pews and parquet floor donated by the Council

1927 The first christening in the Chapel.

1935 A new organ is installed. The original 1917 American organ is still in the Chapel, now located beside our present organ.

1978 Permission given to allow weddings to be held in the School Chapel. In July, Jennifer MARSHALL [1969] married Mr John Robinson. ‘The Chapel looked beautiful and the boarders’ choir, again under Miss Schuback’s direction, sang.’

1982 An FW Letourneau organ from Quebec replaces the 1935 organ which was in a state of total collapse.
The main focus of the year was the Centenary celebrations of the Old Girls’ Union. Thanks to the many generous donations, the school has a rich collection of records, memorabilia and photos. These were used extensively during the year along with detailed research to support various articles, speeches, displays and a new DVD developed by Jess COOK [Class of 2000], for the Centenary Dinner at Back to SCEGGS Day.

Ask the Archives

In 2009 there seemed to be a theme of Old Girls in the news. Professor Jennie Brand Miller [PEARCE, Class of 1970], who has played a major role in educating the public about the Glycemic Index, was interviewed on the ABC programme “Talking Heads.” Freda DU FAUR [Class of 1898], an early mountaineer, was the subject of a documentary on the ABC Radio National Programme “Hindsight” exploring many aspects of her family and life. The Archives were able to support these programmes with information, photographs and footage.

As part of the Girl Guides’ Centenary celebrations in 2010 the book Leadership for Life – 100 Women, 100 Years of Guiding in Australia was published. We provided information on Old Girl, and long time SCEGGS Board member, Joan STEVENSON AM [Class of 1941], for this publication. Marcia Cameron, author of SCEGGS. A Centenary History of Sydney Church of England Girls’ Grammar School, used the Archives throughout 2009 to help with research for her history of SCEGGS Wollongong and work for the recent TIGS history.

A relatively routine internal enquiry to do with the School’s administration in the 1970s has led to – perhaps the most significant and exciting discovery of records for the School in some time. For understanding the School’s history, the former School Council Minutes and the current School Board Minutes are among our most important records. Unfortunately, we had a gap in these from April 1953 to December 1972. In frustration at the lack of these records, we asked the archivist at the Sydney Diocesan Archives for a listing of their records held about the School during this period. In searching for these, three unprocessed boxes of documents held by the Diocesan Archives turned out to be our missing Minutes. These are due to be returned to the School this year. This will mean we have complete set of Council and Board Minutes going back to the foundation of the School. In combination with the information published in Lux, there are very few comparable schools that have such a complete historic record.

Students and the Archives

Year 7 Visual Arts students started the year examining portraits of the Heads of SCEGGS. This not only supported the Visual Arts curriculum, it also helped the Year 7 students gain an understanding of the history and personalities of each of the former Heads of School.

Year 2, for their Investigating the Past unit, visited the Archives with Mrs Denise Cameron and Mrs Louise Cluff. The girls thoroughly enjoyed dressing in the uniform styles of the early days of SCEGGS and looking at photos and objects within the Archives. For seven-year-olds it is a big discovery that the past is different. It was a pleasure to be involved with their visit.

Volunteers

SCEGGS Old Girl Kaye Morrison (MAHLER 1964) has also been a great supporter of the Archives this year. I am very grateful for her work sorting through and indexing the research files on Old Girls.

Students Claudia Mezrani, Unity Paterson, Evangeline Read and Niamh Campbell have generously given their time during 2009 and helped with sorting, selecting and naming photographs. Their knowledge and work adds great value to the photograph collection.

Professional development

In March, SCEGGS hosted a professional development day for School and religious institution archivists. The day included a tour of the School, focusing on textiles displayed in the School and included a visit to the SCEGGS Archives. Textile conservator, Frances Fitzpatrick from the Powerhouse Museum, presented a workshop on managing textile collections.

I have thoroughly enjoyed working with so many different people and areas of the School community and look forward to another interesting year in 2010.
For any new girl coming to SCEGGS, one of her first experiences will be her House Meeting. Little does she realise the impact her House will have on her. In fact, there are many Old Girls of SCEGGS who will ring and pass on the wonderful memories they have of participating, performing, debating and singing in their House events.

Recently a new student asked what the House Crests signify. We thought it timely to do an article on the SCEGGS Houses and what they mean. We would welcome any additional information or photos from the Old Girls.

Miss Dorothy Wilkins’ first decade as Principal of SCEGGS had been one of considerable change, not least was the introduction of the House System we know today. The House System was a feature of many of the girls’ secondary schools by the 1920s. It was said to generate school spirit and sporting enthusiasm. In addition, it encouraged good conduct and was intended to form part of the process by which character was formed.

In 1926, Miss Wilkinson wrote: Enthusiasm, both in work and sport, is sure to wax even keener than it has done this year, and we look forward to much friendly rivalry between the Houses. The all important question of names has been decided, and the choice of calling each House after one of our great pioneers has met with universal approval throughout the school. (Lux, vol. 23, no. 1, February 1926, p. 3.)

The Annual Sports Carnival (Athletics) was the first major event. House plays were introduced in 1949. Today there are not only Sporting, but Musical, Dramatic, General Knowledge and Academic activities included in the Inter House calendar.
Named after Edith Annesley Badham, first Headmistress of SCEGGS (1859–1920) and founder and first President of the Old Girls’ Union (1909–1920).

Crest: Gold shield with a red cross, the cross charged with five five-pointed stars.

Colours: Red and Gold.

Meaning in Heraldry: The cross is a symbol of Christian faith, possibly even associated with service in the Crusades. Five-pointed stars are called mullets. It is the rowel of a horse-rider’s spur. It is used for someone of knightly rank or a third son.

Named after Sir Edmund Barton, first Prime Minister of the Commonwealth 1901–1904. He was a staunch supporter of SCEGGS. His daughter, Jean “Muffie” Barton was amongst the first students to attend the school.

Crest: Red shield, a silver fesse indented.

Colours: Red and White.

Meaning in Heraldry: Military belt or girdle of honour; represents readiness to serve the public.

Named after Reverend Canon Ernest Claude Beck, the first Secretary of the School Council (1894–1927) and the second Chaplain at SCEGGS (1901–1927). Loyal to the school, the Reverend Beck held both positions for more than 30 years.

Crest: Blue shield, three gold fishes.

Colours: Yellow and Blue.

Meaning in Heraldry: A true, generous mind; virtuous for himself, not because of his heritage; also unity with Christ, spiritual nourishment.

Named after Mrs Lilian Christian, an active member of the School Council (1897–1927) and first Old Girl President of the Old Girls’ Union. She was mother of Lilian Mary Christian who attended SCEGGS from 1895–1898.

Crest: A red shield with a black “cross crosslet”.

Colours: Red and Black.

Meaning in Heraldry: Again, the cross represents Christian faith. The cross crosslet signifies the fourfold mystery of the cross.

Named after Wilfred Law Docker, first Treasurer of the School Council (1895–1919).

Crest: Blue shield, a black bridge.

Colours: Black and Blue.

Meaning in Heraldry: A bridge signifies a governor or magistrate.

Named after Archdeacon John Douse Langley (second bishop of Bendigo), an influential member and one of four clergy on the first School Council.

Crest: Gold shield, three green roundels.

Colours: Yellow and Green.

Meaning in Heraldry: A green roundel has the same meaning as an apple which signifies liberality, felicity, and peace.
Early in 2009, International Conservation Services undertook another, smaller, conservation project for us: repairing one of the Honour Boards. The veneer on the second University Honour Board had started to come away.

Countless school girls and staff have walked past these Boards over the last hundred years, perhaps taking for granted the rather radical values and aspirations they reflect.

In 1913, Miss Badham announced, “a board has been put up in the front entrance hall, and on this are the names of all our girls who have matriculated and entered the University and have ultimately taken their degree.”

However, success at university was not seen as an end in itself. In a Lux editorial earlier that year, the editor celebrated academic success and vocational training, going on to say:

“Of course, one cannot, nor does one wish that all the girls, as they pass out of the school, should enter upon an academic career, the interests of life are too varied for that. But in a large school there must be many girls who have to face the problem of earning their own livelihood in some definite way.”

Students were encouraged to think of their contribution beyond school and their need to be financially independent.

Nellie AMOS [1899] was our first graduate. She completed her degree in 1902 after being involved in both the Sydney University Boat Club and Tennis Club, sport being another area that had only recently been seen as an acceptable pursuit for women. After graduating she taught first at Miss Keys’ School at Chatswood and then English and History at PLC Sydney.

Nellie’s progress through university was followed with great interest by the school community and with the wish that, “we hope that other of our number will, before long, follow in her lead.” This wish has certainly been fulfilled. Since 1921, every year except 1928 and 1936 has seen SCEGGS students graduating from university. By 1977, with the addition of Rosemary HUMPHREY’s [1973] name, the third and last Honour Board was full.

These four prize winners at the 1934 Speech Day all went on to the University of Sydney. Joan FREEMAN (DSc), eminent physicist and only female to win the prestigious Rutherford Medal; Lyndall Barbour (BA), Queen of Radio Serials during the 40’s and 50’s; Kitty Peisley MBE [DAVIES] (BEc), 1992 ACT Woman of the Year; Joan Hughes (MBBS) specialised in Paediatrics.

Some of the current students whose grandmother’s are listed on the University Honour Board: Anna Hedstrom, granddaughter of Margot Anthony [BUDD, 1948]; Genevieve Madden, granddaughter of Beverley Kay [BRYCE, 1944]; Anna Salier, granddaughter of Beatrice Bardsley [CHESNUT, 1955]; Zara Threadgold-Wallace, granddaughter of Terry Threadgold [WILSON, 1960]; and Aisha Imtarnasan, granddaughter of Sopi Imtarnasan [ROJNAVIBUL, 1962]. Talitha Salier and Kiara Davis, granddaughter of Vashti Waterhouse [FARRER, 1959] were absent.
On the 4th August last year, Old Girls Efe Conomos-Spartalis (CONOMOS 1973) and Kay Patterson (1961) participated in an “Oral History Exploration” with Year 10 History students. Efe and Kay were interviewed by a group of students about their experiences and opinions on a range of subjects including the changing rights and freedoms of women, the impact of technology on their lives, life in 1960s Australia and the impact of the Whitlam Government. Kay also shared her experiences on the challenges of being a woman in parliament. Kay spoke about the “Centenary of Women’s Suffrage Commemorative Fountain and Suffrage Walk” located in Old Parliament House Gardens in Canberra, which she opened in 2004 when she was Minister Assisting the Prime Minister for Women’s Issues. The appreciation of the girls for the stories shared with them is evident in their evaluations. Here are but two:

“It helped me to understand some of the aspects of history we are studying by allowing me to “see” or “feel” the history as opposed to just reading it.”

“It made history more real and we learnt things we mightn’t have learnt otherwise”.

The History Department is planning to do another “Oral Exploration” with Year 10 this year. If anyone is interested in participating this year, you can express your interest by contacting Louise Wilkins in the SCEGGS History Department at louisewilkins@sceggs.nsw.edu.au.
