From Ms Allum

I thought that everyone should watch this moving and inspiring speech by Xavier Eales, School Captain of Riverview. Many of you may have actually seen it already – it has received quite a lot of press recently.

Click on this link to hear his speech: https://vimeo.com/134160951 or just perform an online search for ‘Xavier Eales speech on friendship’.

A courageous speech on a topic so important for us all.

Just ten days to go until the spectacular Festival on Forbes!

The Fair is on – come rain or shine – and we look forward to seeing all our SCEGGS families and friends on Sunday 23 August, for a day of fun, entertainment, shopping and great food.

Cake Stall and Coffee

A reminder that cake boxes will be sent home with every SCEGGS girl next week to fill with a delicious home baked cake or treats for the fabulous Cake Stall. Lucky Year 10s will have two cake boxes as their Year Group are also responsible for the Coffee and Slices Stall, although this will appear in the guise of a wonderful ‘pop-up’ café called the Kasbah Café! So look out for your cake box/es early next week and if you would like an extra box these will be available from the General Office.

We hope that every family will swing into action and, just like the Olympics, make it the ‘best Cake Stall, ever!’ It is always exciting to see the end results. The cake boxes will include a label to be completed regarding type of cake and contents.

Deliveries can be made to the General Office on Friday 21 August or directly to the Cake Stall (OG10) on Saturday between 10.00am-2.00pm or on Sunday morning of Fair Day, please, before 10.00am.

All types of cakes and slices are welcome and can be as simple or as fancy as you like. From the family favourite to a ‘Masterchef’ creation, all will be welcomed. As well as whole cakes, also needed is a wide selection of slices, biscuits, brownies, muffins, friands, cupcakes and other small treats such as rocky road and coconut ice or even Moroccan/middle eastern sweet treats for selling in the Kasbah Café. If you are stuck for ideas, some recipes are available on the SCEGGS website: http://www.sceggs.nsw.edu.au/news-a-events/sceggs-festival-on-forbes/cooks-corner. Should you require further information, please contact Mrs Brigitte Kuhn.

Silent Auction

Next week you will be emailed a copy of the Silent Auction Catalogue for preview. Thank you to everyone who has supported the Silent Auction. We truly have a fantastic range of items so there will be something to entice everyone! Please contact Miss Daisy Bahen: DaisyBahen@sceggs.nsw.edu.au.

Sports Zone

Year 5 will be turning the netball courts on top of the Sports Hall into a fun-filled and action-packed Sports Zone with an inflatable Soccer Shoot-Out, Putt Putt Golf, Dunny Toss and Giant Twister to name a few of the activities. A major prize will be up for grabs!

Games Central

Year 8 meanwhile are excited to be hosting Games Central in the Primary Playground with all the side-show alley favourites like Coconut Shy, Hoopla, Chocolate Toss, the ever popular Tombola and of course, The Dunking Machine, where you can vie for the right to dunk some of your favourite Teachers and Prefects! Also watch out for the Limbo Contest.
Market Square
The wonderful Market Square with 20 ‘hand picked’ Market Stalls will be housed on the upper level of the Joan Freeman Science, Art and Technology Centre. You will love the range and quality of the goods on offer so please do visit our Market Stalls. We welcome our Market vendors and thank them for being a part of our Fair.

Primary Craft Stall
All girls in Years 3-6 have made wonderful individual art works that will be on display at the Primary Craft Stall. Their items are available for pre-purchase in the Primary School. All art works are $10.00. The girls are invited to bring in their $10.00 in an envelope with their name on it to the Primary Office before Friday 21 August and then collect their work on Fair Day at the Primary Craft Stall.

Educational Access Scheme for 2016 Admissions
Most institutions that participate through the Universities Admissions Centre (UAC) have an Educational Access Scheme for applicants who have experienced long-term educational disadvantage due to circumstances beyond their control or choosing, which has seriously affected their educational performance. A long-term educational disadvantage should normally be experienced for a period of at least six months.

If you think you are eligible, visit http://www.uac.edu.au/faq.shtml to read the FAQ and to download a copy of the 2016 EAS Booklet and the 2016 EAS application form. You need to do this in addition to applying to UAC Undergraduate for admission to courses. Please talk to Ms Condonis or myself for further information to find out whether you may be eligible and how to apply. Applications should be submitted to us by Friday 11 September.

Festival on Forbes
I know girls are getting very excited about the upcoming Festival on Forbes. Rosters for your Year group’s stalls have now been distributed and your Class Parents/Conveners are looking for helpers of all descriptions to help them run successful stalls. Please follow the link they provide and dedicate some of your time on the day getting involved. If you have an hour or two and can help in this way, your Class Parents (and all Fair visitors!) will be most appreciative.

I would like to provide you with a http://www.sceggs.nsw.edu.au/images/stories/main_website/Events/FoF_Poster.pdf link to a poster of our Festival on Forbes. Please feel free to share it on your Facebook page or send it in an email to family and friends. It is now time to spread the word that on Sunday 23 August, SCEGGS is open for business! More information regarding the Fair can be accessed by clicking on the following link: http://www.sceggs.nsw.edu.au/news-a-events/sceggs-festival-on-forbes.

Debating
Archdale
Congratulations to all the teams last week that were successful in their debates. All the girls debated very well and although there were several extremely close results the seven debates went SCEGGS’ way that afternoon.

This week we debate Wenona for the rescheduled Round 5 at home. After this week’s round, results will be tallied and the teams who have clearly made it through to the final rounds will debate in the Quarter-Finals on Tuesday 25 August at a venue still to be determined. Some teams may need to debate in the Tie-Breaker Round on Tuesday 18 August.

IPSHA
Last Friday, Loreto visited SCEGGS for two at home debates, and two Year 6 teams visited St Aloysius for their debates. Loreto proved too strong for the Red Group while the Blue Group were able to secure one win against the boys at St Aloysius. A very enjoyable afternoon was had by all involved.

World Schools’ Debating Competition
Our Debating Captain, Imogen Harper, has returned from the World Schools’ Debating Competition in Singapore where she captained the Australian team to the Semi-Finals in a competition which involves over fifty national school teams. At this point they were unfortunately knocked out by Canada. Congratulations to Imogen who was named the second best speaker in this competition which is a wonderful achievement.

Year 12 Visual Arts Exhibition
The Year 12 Visual Arts Exhibition opens at 4.30pm on Wednesday 19 August, running until 12 noon on Friday 21 August. We warmly invite you to attend the opening and to celebrate the very fine achievements of Year 12. There will be drinks and speeches on the lawn with Ms Allum and the Visual Arts staff at 6.30pm.

This year, for the first time, the works are in two venues, the Auditorium and also in JF1 on the top level of the Joan Freeman Science, Art and Technology Centre. We hope that this will give the works a bit more breathing space and make it easier for everyone to view the works uninterrupted. There are 49 students in Year 12 making Bodies of Work in the media areas of drawing, painting, printmaking, sculpture, digital works and designed objects.

We are very proud of all the students and their sophisticated, skilful work and hope to see as many of you as possible over the three days of the show.

Music Matters

Congratulations

String students from the Primary and Secondary schools started their days before dawn last week to attend a workshop with Mr Stephen Chin. He has written a special piece for SCEGGS in celebration of the school’s 120th Anniversary. Lux Angelis (Light of the Angels) uses a range of evocative String techniques to create the image of light travelling through stained glass windows. Mr Chin visited SCEGGS at the end of last year, working with girls in the late afternoon in the SCEGGS Great Hall. He has taken that image and used it as the basis of our special piece.

Lux Angelis will receive its first performance at the Series 120 Concert 4 - at the Concourse Concert Hall, Chatswood on Sunday 18 October.
