What an amazing effort!

Miriam Pritchard debated against Cheltenham Girls' High School team of Jacqueline Brown, Kendall Fraser, Isabelle Grbin and Imogen Harper is Captain of the Australian Schools’ Team at the World Championships in Singapore. We wish Imogen and the Australian team good luck!

What an amazing effort!

History Debating

The History debaters have enjoyed a busy and successful start to Term III. In the JA Thompson History Debating competition, the Year 10 and Year 11 teams debated against Newington. The Year 10 team, of Sally Adams, Sofia Latham, Rachel McCrossin and Sophia Thompson, argued the negative in a closely fought debate on the topic ‘That Australia should become a republic’. Although they were unsuccessful the debate was thoroughly researched and of a high quality. The Year 11 team, of Penelope Henderson, Charlotte Munns, Naomi Segal and Francesca Spry, was also the negative on the topic ‘That the USA provoked Japan into war in 1941’. This was another excellent debate in which the nuanced rebuttal of the SCEGGS team secured the win.

In the Year 10 Les Gordon History Debating competition, the team of Jacqueline Brown, Kendall Fraser, Isabelle Grbin and Miriam Pritchard debated against Cheltenham Girls’ High School on the topic ‘That the civil rights movement has failed’. This was a wide ranging and complex debate with the SCEGGS team emerging as the victors. They now progress to the third round of this competition. A special acknowledgement must be made of Miriam’s contribution as second speaker. She was asked to fill in only minutes before the debate and not only was she on crutches, but it was the first time she had debated since Year 7! What an amazing effort!

Congratulations to all of the girls who have worked so hard on the recent debates and we wish them well as they continue to progress through the competitions.

Years 7 & 8 ‘Father/Daughter Breakfast’
The P & F look forward to welcoming our Years 7 and 8 girls and their fathers or significant father figure to breakfast tomorrow morning. We trust the girls enjoy the time spent with their ‘Fathers’ having breakfast and hearing what ‘Old Girl’ guest speaker, Ms Harriet Dixon-Smith (2005), has been up to, working as a publicist for the film industry.

Primary Discos
Our Primary girls are no doubt eagerly awaiting their chance to experience the Winter Wonderland Discos that will be held in the SCEGGS Great Hall on Friday 14 August. RSVPs are now due so please assist our lovely volunteer organisers by replying sooner rather than later! Payment can be made online by clicking here - select ‘P & F and Class Parent Events’ and from the drop down menu choose ‘Primary Disco’.

Festival on Forbes
Thank you to our very generous SCEGGS Community for all the support to date! Debating

Archdale

The results of this week’s round for the Archdale Debating Competition held at Danebank will be placed in next week’s Behind the Green Gate newsletter.

The next Round will be held at SCEGGS on Tuesday, 4 August against Mount St Benedict. The topic area for this round is ‘The Government’s Role in Society’. The girls involved are to be collected by their parents at the conclusion of their daughter’s debate.

Trials for the Archdale Representative teams are to be held on Sunday 16 August at Monte Sant’ Angelo in North Sydney. Details of how to enrol are on the debating notice board.

IPSHA

Two Year 6 teams from the Red Group went to St Pius on Friday 24 July to debate Round 5 of the IPSHA competition. It was a very enjoyable afternoon with one win to SCEGGS and one win to St Pius on the topic ‘That celebrities are poor role models’.

World Schools Debating Championships
This week Imogen Harper is Captain of the Australian Schools’ Team at the World Championships in Singapore. We wish Imogen and the Australian team good luck!
Drama
Saving SCEGGS

Saving SCEGGS is our Term IV Drama Production, written and directed by Dr Linden Wilkinson.

Congratulations to the following girls who have been cast in the production:

Isabel Bremner, Jacqueline Brown, Reenie Condoleon, Bella Dawson, Eleanor Fair, Abby Faure, Annabel Fraser, Niamh Gallagher, Camilla Kidd, Chloe Lamb, Rachel McCrossin, Phoebe McKenzie-Hutton, Tiffany Mills, Isabella Ryan, Sienna Schroeder, Cameron Scurrah, Kate Squires, Zoe Terakes and Ada Tuna.

Saving SCEGGS will take place in November, at 14 sites within the grounds and buildings of SCEGGS. Rehearsals begin this Sunday.

Jeans for Genes Day

On Friday, 14 August, the School will be supporting the Children’s Medical Research Institute (CMRI) by participating in Jeans for Genes Day. This day is more than an excuse to wear your favourite pair of jeans it is an initiative to raise much needed funds for children’s medical research. The CMRI has been a pioneer of paediatric medical research since 1958. Its many achievements include increasing survival rates of premature babies, developing life saving microsurgery techniques and introducing vaccines that protect again a number of potentially fatal or disabling childhood diseases.

Students from Kindergarten to Year 11 are asked to wear jeans and sensible casual clothing to school on Friday 14 August. They are asked to bring a gold coin donation which will be collected by Year 11 during Form time. All money raised will go to the CMRI.

Visual Arts

Talia Szekely has won the Junior prize for the Ken Duncan Photo Award. This is a prestigious award in its inaugural year and Talia’s work was selected by a panel of renowned Australian professional photographers. Congratulations, Talia!! Find out more at http://kenduncanphotoawards.com/.

He Ashley-Marie Marcos Award

Ms Ashley-Marie Marcos is an Old Girl of SCEGGS (Class of 2004). She has generously donated an award that supports a student from Year 11 to undertake a course in Visual Arts over the Christmas break between Years 11 and 12.

As Ms Marcos was passionate about her art studies and is now a designer, her aim is to assist a Year 11 student to increase their skills in a particular area that will inform their Body of Work.

Past recipients have been: Aurora Hawcroft 2014, Natalia Stojcevski 2012, Lilli Stromland 2011 (Art Express, AGNSW now studying at National Art School), Lauren Collee 2010 (3rd in the State in Visual Arts), Julia Yeh 2009 COFA graduate, and Alexandra Gengos 2008 (Studying art at Goldsmiths in London).

Students who are interested need to write 500 words about their interest in art and what they hope to achieve through studying an art course. Ms Marcos selects the award recipient and is interested not just in the high achievers but also those who strive and are committed and stand to gain a great deal through undertaking the course.

Applications are due to be emailed to me by Monday 31 August.

The recipient will be announced at the end of the term.

Sport

Mid-Term Break Weekend – Saturday 8 August

Please be advised that IGSSA sporting fixtures for Netball and Hockey will still go ahead on this weekend. All students are expected to fulfil their sporting commitments on the Saturday morning. Parents should not be withdrawing students from sport to go away for the weekend. Forfeiting matches due to a lack of players will reflect very poorly on SCEGGS’ reputation in the Independent Schools community.

Secondary Term IV Sports Choice Forms Online

We are trialling an online system of completing the Secondary Sports Choice forms. A link to the form has been emailed to all secondary students and all sports selections are now overdue.

Primary Sports Choice Forms will still be completed via the old system of the paper form that is being sent home with students.

Congratulations
HSC Music Students presented their Music Programs for family and friends in a pre-trial concert last week. Such terrific variety of music for us all to enjoy.

All Musicians who participated in Series 120 Concert No. 3. Continuing to Celebrate the School’s 120th Anniversary has been so exciting. Members of Choir, Madrigal Ensemble, Cantare, Contemporary Vocal Ensemble, Years 5 and 6, 7 and 8, and Senior Percussion Ensembles, Guerneri and Amati Strings, Basie Jazz Band, Holst Concert Band, Rock Band and soloists Suzannah Keene and Diana Sideris, contributed to this wonderful evening. Acknowledging the outstanding contribution to all staff who prepared and supported girls in their performances which included several new works written especially for SCEGGS Co-curricular Ensembles.

Guest of Honour, Mrs Margot Anthony (Budd - Class of 1948) travelled especially from her home (in far northern NSW) to share memories of SCEGGS as she recalled her time as a member of the Choir, and as a Chapel Organist. What a thrill to listen to her stories. Music has, and continues to play, an important part in her life.

Current, immediate-past and past holders of The Margot Anthony (Budd) Beyond the Music Curriculum Award gathered to meet and share their Music with Mrs Margot Anthony last week. Such a lovely gathering of Elective Music students chatting about the progress of the special, musical projects they are pursuing. What a thrill to also share performances by Miss Chloe Chung (Class of 2011) and Miss Michaela Edelstein (Class of 2012). Both young women were recipients of Margot Anthony Awards and are nearing the completion of their studies at the NSW Conservatorium of Music, with plans to undertake post-graduate studies overseas. More SCEGGS musicians ‘headed’ for the international stage. In the eight years since the Awards were first made, 16 SCEGGS Musicians have benefited from Margot Anthony’s desire to enable them to ‘follow their passion’.

Elective Music Students from Year 9 were the last Elective class to present performances at the Music Week Lunchtime Invitational Concerts. A most enjoyable lunchtime. Thanks again to Accompanists Ms Stephanie Holmes and Ms Heidi Jones for supporting girls’ work throughout this series.

Composite - 120 Projects - new works featured at Series 120 Concert 3

The ‘second batch’ of new pieces, written especially for SCEGGS musicians received their first performances at the Series 120 – Concert 3. No better way to Celebrate than with music written especially for girls in our Ensembles. The following works were featured:

- Shout and Sing - for Combined Choirs - Michael Atherton
- Miss Bloomingdale’s Dusty Drawers - for Years 5 and 6 Percussion Ensembles - Jayne Groves (Class of 1991).
- Peace - for Holst Wind Band - George Dreyfus, arranged Steven Capaldo.
- Joy Dirt - for Suzannah Keene (Year 12 - ‘cello) - Damian Barbeler
- Shine - for Combined Choirs - Tony Backhouse.

Series 120 Concert Programs are available on SCEGGSnet

The programs prepared for the Series 120 Concerts are available on SCEGGSnet. Each program contains a ‘glimpse of the past’ and details of the new pieces which enjoyed premiere performances at each Concert. You are sure to enjoy the collection of photographs taken from the SCEGGS Archives. You could even find your name included for generations to come.

Photo…

Have you taken any great photos of our musicians at recent performances? We would love to be able to include these in the Music Department collection to submit for Lux magazine. We do great music, we do not often have ‘spare hands’ for taking photos and would appreciate your willingness to share. Photos can be emailed to RuthEvatt@sceggs.nsw.edu.au.

Bravo…O…O Year 12

At the Series 120 Concert 3, we formally acknowledged the contributions of Year 12 musicians to the Music Co-curricular Program, as we wished them well in their forthcoming Trial HSC Examinations. Thirty wonderful musicians were thanked for their involvement over many years, and in some cases, in multiple ensembles. They will be missed, their leadership and musical expertise having provided important role models for the ‘next generation’. Year 12 students are most welcome to continue their involvement with Co-curricular Music activities from now until Speech Night/Carols should they wish to do so. Regular weekly involvement is a great way to balance their otherwise ‘busy’ lives.
