SCEGGS’ Commitment to Reconciliation

Tuesday 26 May was National Sorry Day. On that day we remember and commemorate the Stolen Generations of Aboriginal peoples forcibly removed from their families over decades. National Sorry Day marks the day before Reconciliation Week which is celebrated across Australia from 27 May to 3 June every year. 27 May marks the anniversary of Australia’s 1967 referendum which saw over 90 per cent of Australians vote to give the Commonwealth the power to make laws for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and recognise them in the national census. On 3 June, 1992, the High Court of Australia delivered its landmark Mabo decision which legally recognised that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples have a special relationship to the land that existed prior to colonisation and still exists today.

While every day we try to carry a spirit of reconciliation between Indigenous and Non-Indigenous Australians, this week allows us to take visible action to symbolise our commitment. We were privileged to have Ms Teela Reid, a proud Wiradjiri woman, address our Years K-12 Reconciliation Week Assembly on Monday. Her powerful talk focused on the importance of right relationships between Indigenous and Non-Indigenous Australians as the key to a healthy and just future for our nation. Only with a shift of mind and shift of heart that recognises unjust structures and attitudes will we grow. At the same time, indigeneity or non-indigeneity is not the only thing that defines a person and a mutual appreciation of our shared humanity will be the source of our strength.

So in an effort to proudly celebrate Indigenous culture for the riches it brings to our lives, many activities will take place over the week such as storytelling, planting a Sea of Hands, flying the Aboriginal flag, researching famous Indigenous Australians, a BBQ with proceeds going to an Indigenous Women’s Community Centre in Woolloomooloo, and lots more!

I am moved by the reflection below from Ms Miriam-Rose Ungunmerr-Baumann - artist, tribal elder and Principal of St Francis Xavier School, Daly River, Northern Territory – whose wisdom about culture sings through her words.

‘Dadirri… is our most unique gift. It is perhaps the greatest gift we can give to our fellow Australians. It is inner, deep listening and quiet, still awareness. Dadirri recognises the deep spring that is inside us. When I experience dadirri, I am made whole again. There is no need of words. A big part of dadirri is listening. In our Aboriginal way, we learnt to listen from our earliest days. We could not live good and useful lives unless we listened. My people are not threatened by silence. They are completely at home in it.’

‘Our Aboriginal culture has taught us to be still and to wait. We do not try to hurry things up. We let them follow their natural course - like the seasons. There is nothing more important than what we are attending to. There is nothing more urgent that we must hurry away for. We wait on God, too. His time is the right time. We know that in time and in the spirit of dadirri his way will be clear. We hope that the people of Australia will wait. Not so much waiting for us to catch up - but waiting with us, as we find our place in this world. There is much pain and struggle as we wait.’

‘We are asking our fellow Australians to take time to know us; to be still and to listen to us… Today, I am beginning to hear the Gospel at the very level of my identity. I am beginning to feel the great need we have of Jesus - to protect and strengthen our identity; and to make us whole and new again. If our culture is alive and strong and respected, it will grow. It will not die. And our spirit will not die. And I believe that the spirit of dadirri that we have to offer will blossom and grow, not just within ourselves, but in our whole nation.’

It is with great delight that today we launch the Festival on Forbes Art Competition!

‘Vintage’ Vases
Vases can be such interesting items coming in so many shapes, colours and sizes. A natural companion for our Flower Stall, we are calling for donations for our newest venture so please join the de-clutter and recycling trend, investigate your cupboards, garage or storage room for pre-loved but no longer favourite vase(s), and send in to the General Office. We are excited to uncover the range that is out there! Enquiries to Mrs Lyn McDonald or Mrs Katherine Gallop.

History Debating
The Years 10 and 11 History Debating teams have had an exciting start to the season. The Year 10 team is in two competitions and they have won their first debate in each.

In the Les Gordon competition they debated Menai High School on the topic ‘That we have made a better world’ and in an interesting and entertaining debate, the team of Jacqueline Brown, Piper Devlin, Lucy Edwards and Sophia Thompson, were successful in proving that we have not made a better world.

In the first round of the JA Thompson competition against Barker, the Year 10 team of Sally Adams, Isabelle Grbin, Rachel McCrossin and Sophia Thompson strongly proved ‘That Australia’s involvement in the Vietnam War was justified’. The Year 11 team also debated Barker and their topic was ‘That the League of Nations was doomed from the start’. Despite excellent historical material which affirmed their side of the case, the SCEGGS team was not victorious. Congratulations to Penelope Henderson, Emily Moss, Naomi Segal and Victoria Tanna for their fine efforts.

Thank you to the girls who acted as chairperson and timekeeper for the two debates against Barker – Alexandra Punch, Charlotte Munns and Samantha Barnes. Congratulations to all three teams for a great start to History debating this year.

The results from Round 1 of the Archdale Debating Competition on Tuesday 26 May against Loreto Normanhurst will be posted in next week’s Behind the Green Gate publication.

Round 2 will be held on Tuesday 2 June at Monte Sant’Angelo and the topic area is ‘Gender Issues’. The girls will travel by bus at the end of the school day to Monte Sant’Angelo in North Sydney and there will be a return bus after the Senior debates which should be back at SCEGGS by 8.15pm. Parents may come and watch the debates and take their daughters home afterwards. Please email me if you intend to do this.

IPSHA
Last Friday the SCEGGS Blue Group debated the SCEGGS Red Group on the topic ‘That zoos do more harm than good’. One team from each group won their debates. It was great to see so much support from their peers for their debates.

National Schools Debating Competition
Last week Imogen Harper, Year 12, captained the NSW Schools’ Debating Team to victory at the Nationals which were held in Adelaide. Imogen was also named best speaker over the weeks’ debates and awarded the Chris Erskine medal and she has been named Captain of the Australian Schools’ Debating Team which will debate in the World Championships in Singapore from 25 July. These are outstanding achievements for Imogen and we congratulate her and wish her all the best with the Australian team.

Congratulations
Choir and Madrigal Ensemble for their wonderful contribution of songs from the Torres Strait Islands at Reconciliation Assembly. This song was accompanied by a traditional floor dance. Thanks to Miss Harrigan for preparing and directing the Choirs for this special assembly.

Six Organists from PLC, Newington and SCEGGS presented pieces for Professor Colin Andrews, visiting Australia recently from Indiana University (US). Some very fine playing was presented and the subject of intense teaching throughout each of the master class sessions. We should feel very proud of our own Organ Scholars Jacqueline Brown (Year 10) and Suzannah Keene (Year 12), who both gave excellent performances of very challenging pieces. Thanks to Mr Kurt Ison for his preparation of all student participants and enabling the visit by Professor Andrews.

"Giving a voice to the elephant in the room."

Dr Timothy Sharp

The Parents’ and Friends’ Association are very pleased to once again welcome Dr Timothy (aka ‘Dr Happy’) Sharp as a guest speaker, in company with two representatives of Batyr, a social enterprise that focuses on preventive education in the area of young people’s mental health. Each of our guest speakers will give a presentation before joining forces for a panel discussion where they will take questions from our audience.

We are going to address a very troubling issue for all of us as parents: ‘How can we best support our child’s mental health and wellbeing?’ ‘If there are mental health issues, how do we recognise it, how do we handle it and what help is there?’

Dr Sharp, Psychologist and Founder/C.H.O (‘Chief Happiness Officer’) of the Happiness Institute, returns to join, and moderate, our panel. No stranger to local and international media, he has been a regular presenter at the Happiness and Its Causes Conference taking the stage in company with the Dalai Lama. He presented to a very large and appreciative audience at the P & F Meeting in 2014.

Batyr aims to engage, educate and empower young people to speak out about mental health issues by fostering an environment where talking about these issues and getting help is not only accepted, but is encouraged and supported.

We warmly welcome and encourage our SCEGGS Community in both the Primary and Secondary Schools for these very special presentations and discussion.
