The University of Sydney - Elite Athletes and Performers Scheme Opens

1 August 2020, 9.00am

If you are an athlete or performer and your rehearsal, training and/or competitive commitments have significantly impacted your Year 12 studies, this scheme allows you to receive adjustment factors to increase your selection rank when applying to the University of Sydney.

Eligibility

- Australian citizen or permanent resident
- Meet the criteria for an elite athlete or performer
- Your Year 12 studies or equivalent were adversely impacted by time spent competing or performing

Selection criteria

You will be considered an elite athlete if during your HSC year or equivalent, you were an outstanding Australian state and/or representative in a sport recognised by Sport Australia AND your selection to participate significantly and adversely impacted your HSC preparation or equivalent.

You will be considered an elite performer if you performed in extended or significant productions that significantly and adversely impacted your HSC preparation or equivalent.

Note: Your selection into the scheme may be affected by the number of students that apply to the degree, their rank and position in major competitions and performances, and the number of places made available in the degree.
